
JOHN W. WHALEN

EASTPORT, June 10—Deputy Sheriff John W. Whalen, 76, died suddenly late Tuesday night at his home here. Complaining of feeling ill before leaving for Calais to attend court Tuesday morning, he made the trip and attended to his duties. He again felt ill on the return trip to Eastport and suffered a severe attack after arriving at his home. He had been a deputy for 14 years.

John W. Whalen died late Tuesday night
(Jun 9, 1936)

Clipped By:
lisapino
Mar 21, 2026