

Death Claims Eastport Fire Chief At 60

EASTPORT, July 9—Hollis Vernon Whalen, 60, Eastport fire chief, died Wednesday evening in a local hospital after a long illness.

Chief Whalen was born in Eastport December 14, 1898, the son of John W. and Mattie S. (Dudley) Whalen.

Except for seven years spent in the U. S. Navy, Whalen lived in Eastport all his life.

He was a member of Anchor Lodge, Knights of Pythias, a former member of Independent Order of Red Men, and a member of Eastport Fire Dept. for 30 years. He had served as fire chief for the last five years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Alice D. Whalen of Eastport; three daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Thomas of South Carolina, Mrs. Shirley Phillips of Washington, D. C., and Miss Priscilla Whalen, Eastport; two sons, Bruce and Robert of Bangor; three brothers, William of Milbridge, Leonard of Haverhill, Mass., and Arthur Royce Whalen, Bangor; eight grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held here Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Washington Street Baptist Church, the Rev. Cedric E. Brooks officiating.

Interment will be at Hillside Cemetery, Eastport.

Bearers will be members of the fire department and the K. of P. lodge.

Friends may call at the Flagg Funeral Home in Eastport Thursday and Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 and in the evenings of those days from 7 to 9.
