

Can You Imagine

Jelaine Nott—Not flirting
 Betsy Sleight—Not hurrying to class
 Mary Carter—Not writing to Walter every day
 Ida Avery—Without Jackie for one day
 Bette Pottle—Whispering in class
 Patricia White—Without Ginny Brown
 Shirley Whalen—Liking one boy
 Gerry Barrett—Without Hallie's ring
 Virginia Brown—Not talking continuously
 Kenneth West—Being six feet tall
 Dale Lincoln—Being noisy
 Billy Adams—Not in Robbinston
 Billy Kendall—Being five feet tall
 John Mullen—Wanting a girl friend
 David Feltenstein—Not arguing
 Gregory Shaw—Not smiling at girls

Stanley Call—Not speaking to Regina
 Joe Sullivan—Raising the devil
 Billy Flagg—Not being friendly
 Kenneth Kinney—Not waiting for the weekends.
 Lloyd Taylor—Not eating
 Richard Young—Without his wave
 Clark Sherman—Being stupid
 Richard Brown—Not being a class clown
 Jerry Wise—With his mouth shut
 Murray O'Dell—Not teasing a girl
 Paul Lowe—Not talking serious
 Robert Pottle—Quiet for five minutes
 Loring Stanhope—Not teasing the girls
 John Turner—Not doing his homework
 Joie Mitchell—Without Bev
 Freddy Cook—Without a magazine in class
 Norma Chevrier—Not giggling

Ten Years From Now

Jelaine Nott—Mrs. Roger Conti
 Betsy Sleight—A successful business woman
 Mary Carter—Mrs. Walter Leighton
 Ida Avery—Mrs. John M. Mullen
 Bette Pottle—An English teacher
 Patricia White—Living on Air Base
 Shirley Whalen—A typist
 Gerry Barrett—A Marine's wife
 Virginia Brown—A graduate Nurse
 Kenneth West—World's heavyweight champ
 Dale Lincoln—Owning a large store
 Billy Adams—Living in Robbinston
 Billy Kendall—Professional basketball player
 John Mullen—Breaking girls' hearts
 David Feltenstein—In the "Taxi" business
 Gregory Shaw—Playing in a sympathy orchestra
 Stanley Call—In his own home with Regina

 Joe Sullivan—Writing a column for Lonely Hearts
 Billy Flagg—President of United States
 Kenneth Kinney—A coach at Shead
 Lloyd Taylor—"A Sweet to eat" Shop
 Richard Young—Married? to who Dick?
 Clark Sherman—Still doing someone else's homework
 Richard Brown—Jet Air Ace
 Jerry Wise—Leader of the "Wise Guys"
 Murray O'Dell—Judge in a Beauty Contest
 Paul Lowe—Manager at J. J. Newberry's
 Robert Pottle—Editor of magazine "Smile"
 John Turner—Still laughing at David's jokes
 Joie Mitchell—Settled down with Bev.
 Freddy Cook—Looking for a wife
 Norma Chevrier—A farmer's wife
 Loring Stanhope—Gentleman farmer