John W. Whalen

DEER ISLAND, June 24 — (Special)—Funeral services for the late John W. Whalen, deputy sheriff of Eastport, Me., and a native of Deer Island, N. B., were recently held from the Central Congregational Church in Eastport. Rev. Melvin Hutchins conducted the service.

He was born at Northwest Harbor, Deer Island, in 1860, his parents being the late Patrick and Eliza (Leslie) Whalen. Mr. Whalen moved to Eastport when a young man and for years was foreman of a sardine factory there before becoming deputy sheriff. He is survived by three sons, William E. of Eastport; Leonard S. of Haverhill, Mass., and Hollis V. of Eastport. A sister, Mrs. Joseph Card of Lynn, Mass., also survives. Mrs. Whalen died several years ago. Captain William Whalen of Chocolate Cove is a relative, and other relatives live in Leonardville.
