Alleged Companion In Con- fidence Game Is Acquit- ted At Eastport

Special Despatch to The Press Herald
Eastport, Aug. 15.—Frank F. Dunbar of Bangor and William F. Beety of Waterville, were brought here yesterday morning from Fort Fairfield by Patrolman William E. Gibson of the State Highway Police, to answer to charges of larceny from small stores in nearby towns. They were alleged to have worked this section about the first of July and again about the first of this month leaving a trail of storekeepers who mourned in nearly every case the loss of $10.00 obtained from them by a complicated money changing process.

They were recognized by one victim on their second visit here August 3rd, and taken into custody and tried in the Eastport Municipal Court. Found guilty, fined $25 and costs each and told that the sooner they left the city the better.

Other Victims Complain

Later when other victims of the alleged confidence men read the account of the Eastport swindles they notified the authorities and a general warning was broadcast throughout the state, which resulted in the men arrested in Fort Fairfield last Wednesday by the Chief of Police of that town, who notified Chief Field of the Highway Police at Augusta and Patrolman Gibson of Calais who was at Augusta and who knew the men, having arrested them previously, was sent to bring them to Eastport.

They were arraigned before Judge Whalen yesterday morning a charge of larceny being brought against Dunbar on complaint of Jessie H. Blackwood of Pembroke, who alleged that Dunbar, August 3rd obtained a ten dollar bill from Arthur Carter of Pembroke, a young boy who was temporarily in charge of her store. He was found guilty and sentenced to serve three months in the county jail at Machias. Leo D. Lamond, appearing as his counsel, offered an appeal and bail was fixed at seven hundred dollars.

Second Time Guilty

In the afternoon, Dunbar was arraigned on complaint of Abner McFadden who owns and operates a small store at Lubec Ridge, two miles from Lubec Village, and who asserted he was victimized of ten dollars on August 3rd, also by Dunbar and after hearing the evidence in this case Dunbar again was adjudged guilty and a similar sentence was given on this charge, making a total of six months. Upon appeal, his bail was fixed at seven hundred dollars as on the first charge.

Bail not being forthcoming, Judge Whalen ordered him committed to the county jail at Machias and he was taken there by Deputy Sheriff John W. Whalen of Eastport, late in the afternoon.

Beety was arraigned in the afternoon and found not guilty of the charges preferred against him and to show his gratitude to the court he conveyed Dunbar and Sheriff Whalen to Machias in his touring car.
